

Active Learning Environment Quiz

- What are the important factors for children on the playground?
- Do we have a playground schedule?
- What do we use to develop lesson plans?
- What type of questions should we be asking children?
- What type of things should happen in a circle time?
- Can babies and toddler's have a circle time? Is different then preschooler? If so how is it different?
- Explain what transitions are.
- Why is it important to have a routine for those transitions?
- Do all children need to take a nap?
- What should children do if they don't nap? How long should children wait ,who don't sleep, before then can start a quiet activity?
- What makes up the active learning environment?